I understand that this is only an application to request financial aid and is not a promise or guarantee of assistance. VCAF reserves the right to offer the full amount requested, partial amount, or no financial aid to any applicant. I understand that if awarded financial aid that I will be held liable for any remaining balance due not covered by the financial aid. If my child is selected to receive aid, I have the right to accept or refuse the assistance offered within 7 days. If I do not accept within 7 days, the offer is considered void. If I accept financial assistance from VCAF, I understand that I must still complete the registration, information, and waiver forms in order for my child to participate. Please note that students and guardians are responsible for following the codes of conduct and failure to do so could result in the loss of privilege to attend camp.
